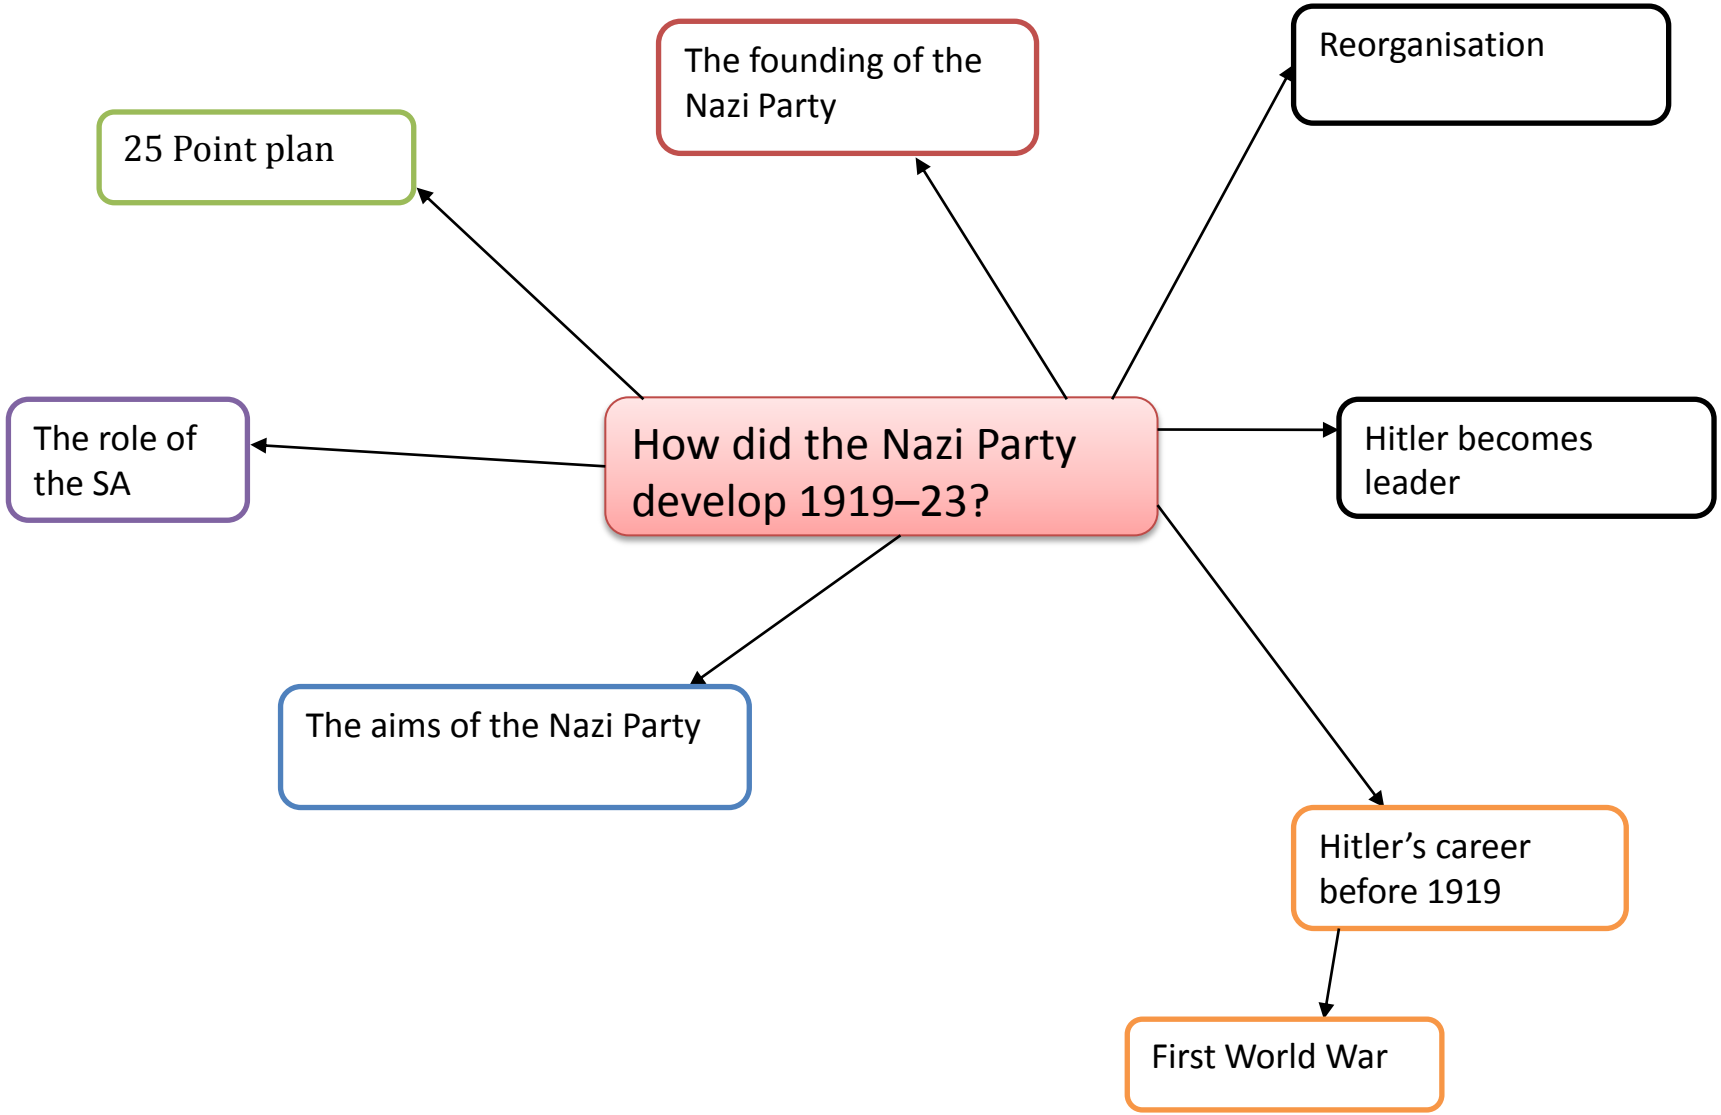
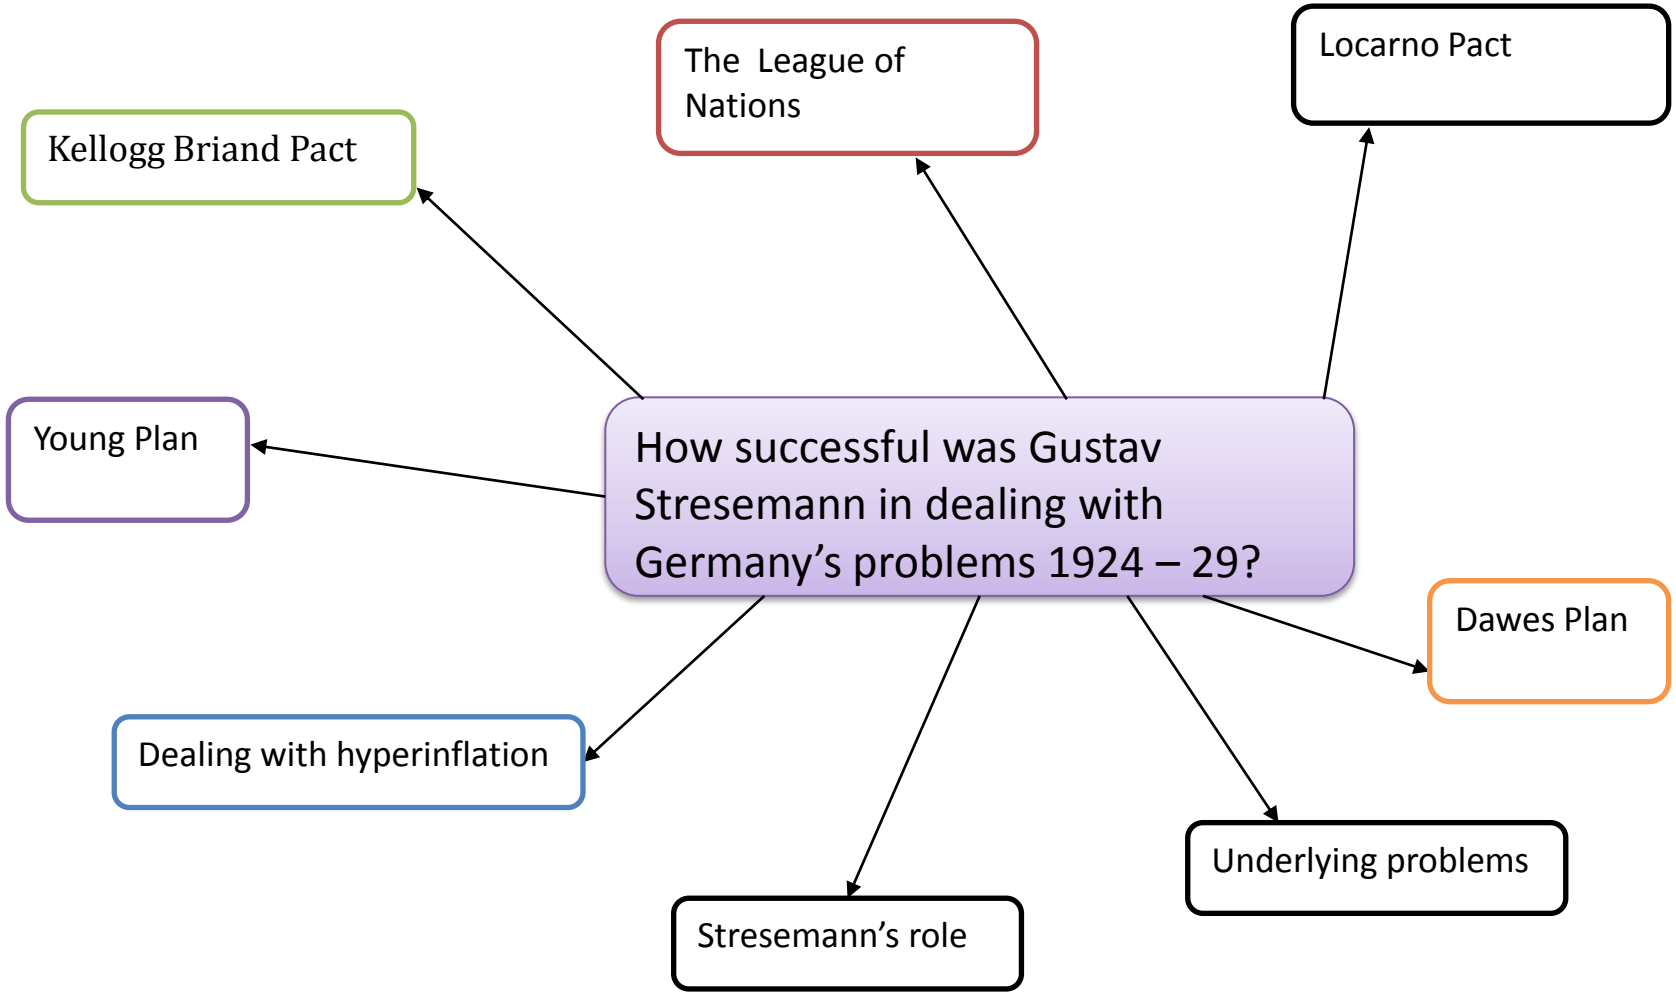
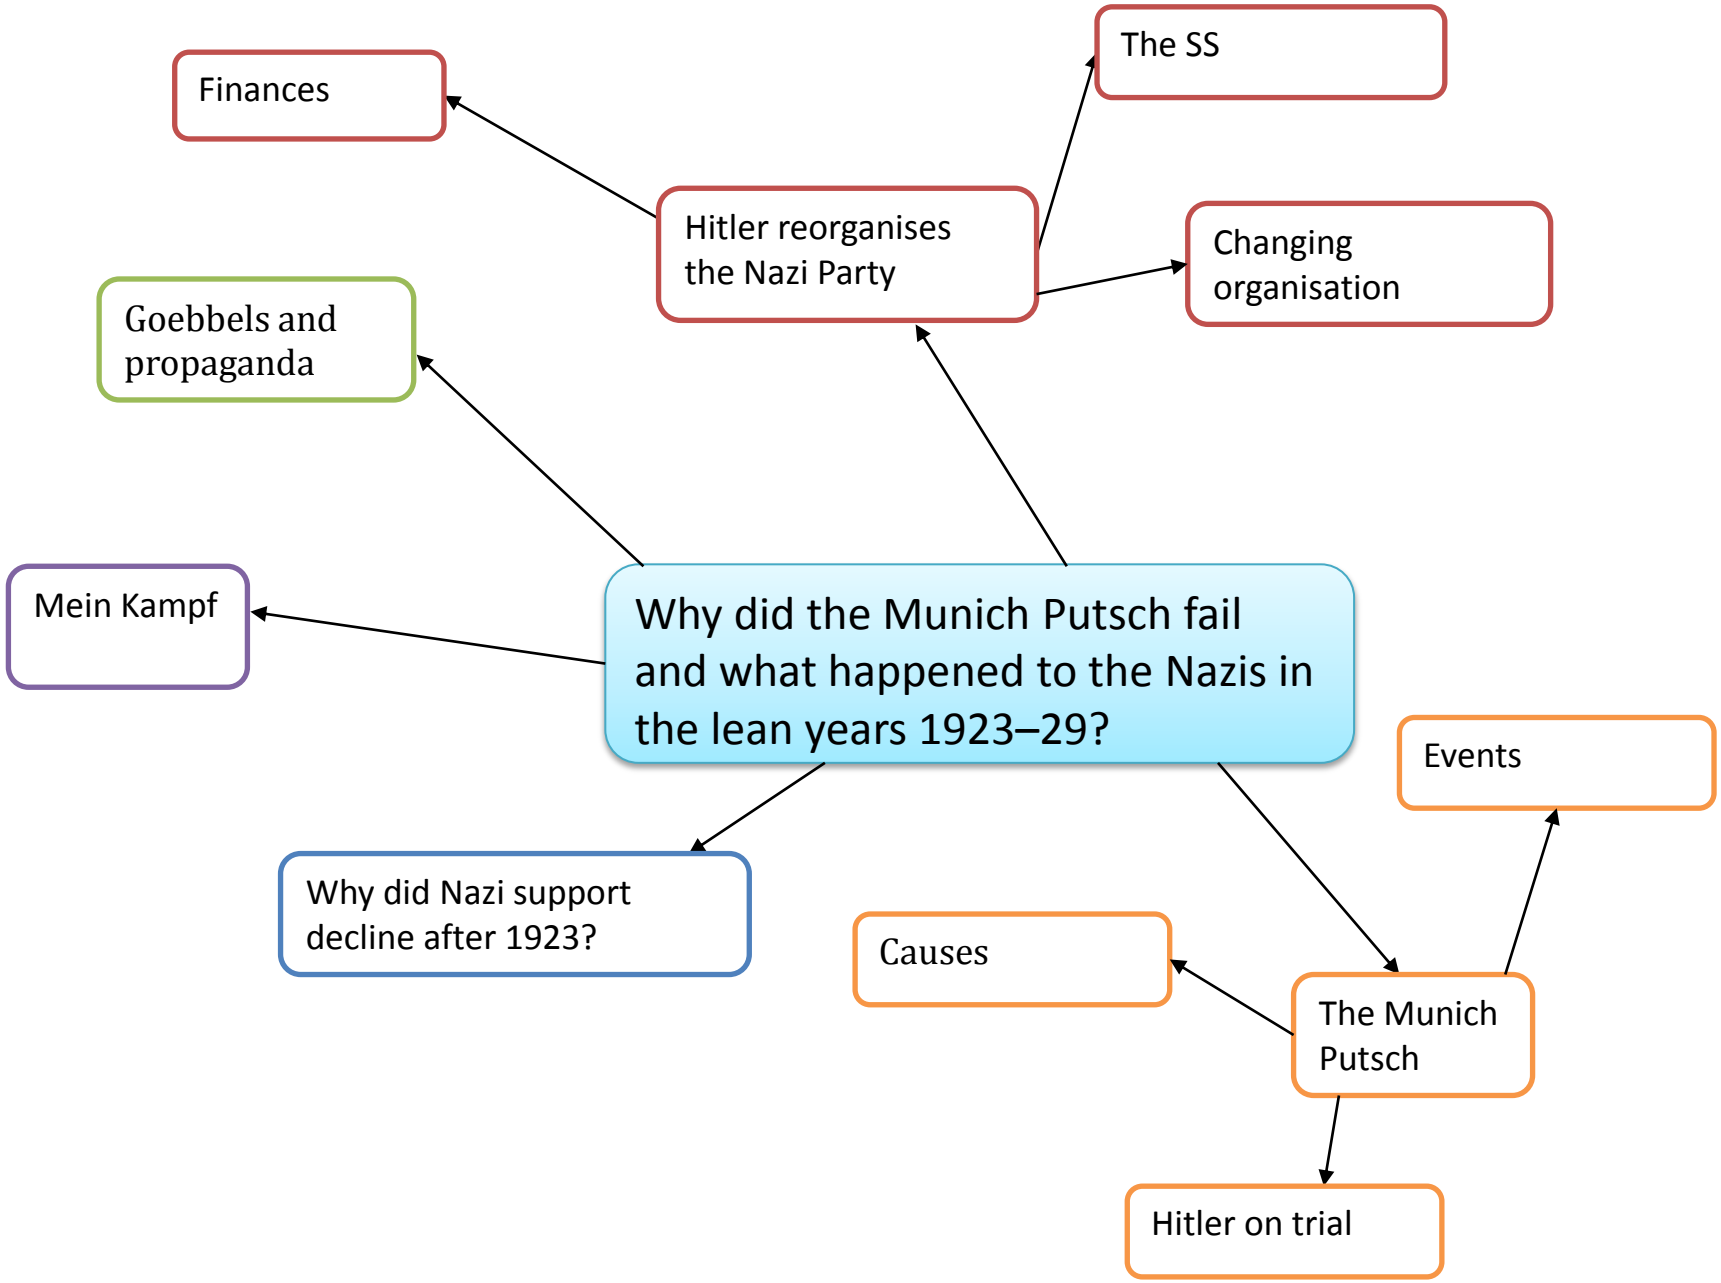
The early years of the Weimar Republic
The Weimar Constitution
Weaknesses
Positive features
Hyperinflation
The November Criminals
Invasion of the Ruhr
The Treaty of Versailles
Effects
Terms LAMB
Political Violence
The Spartacists
Kapp Putsch
Munich Putsch



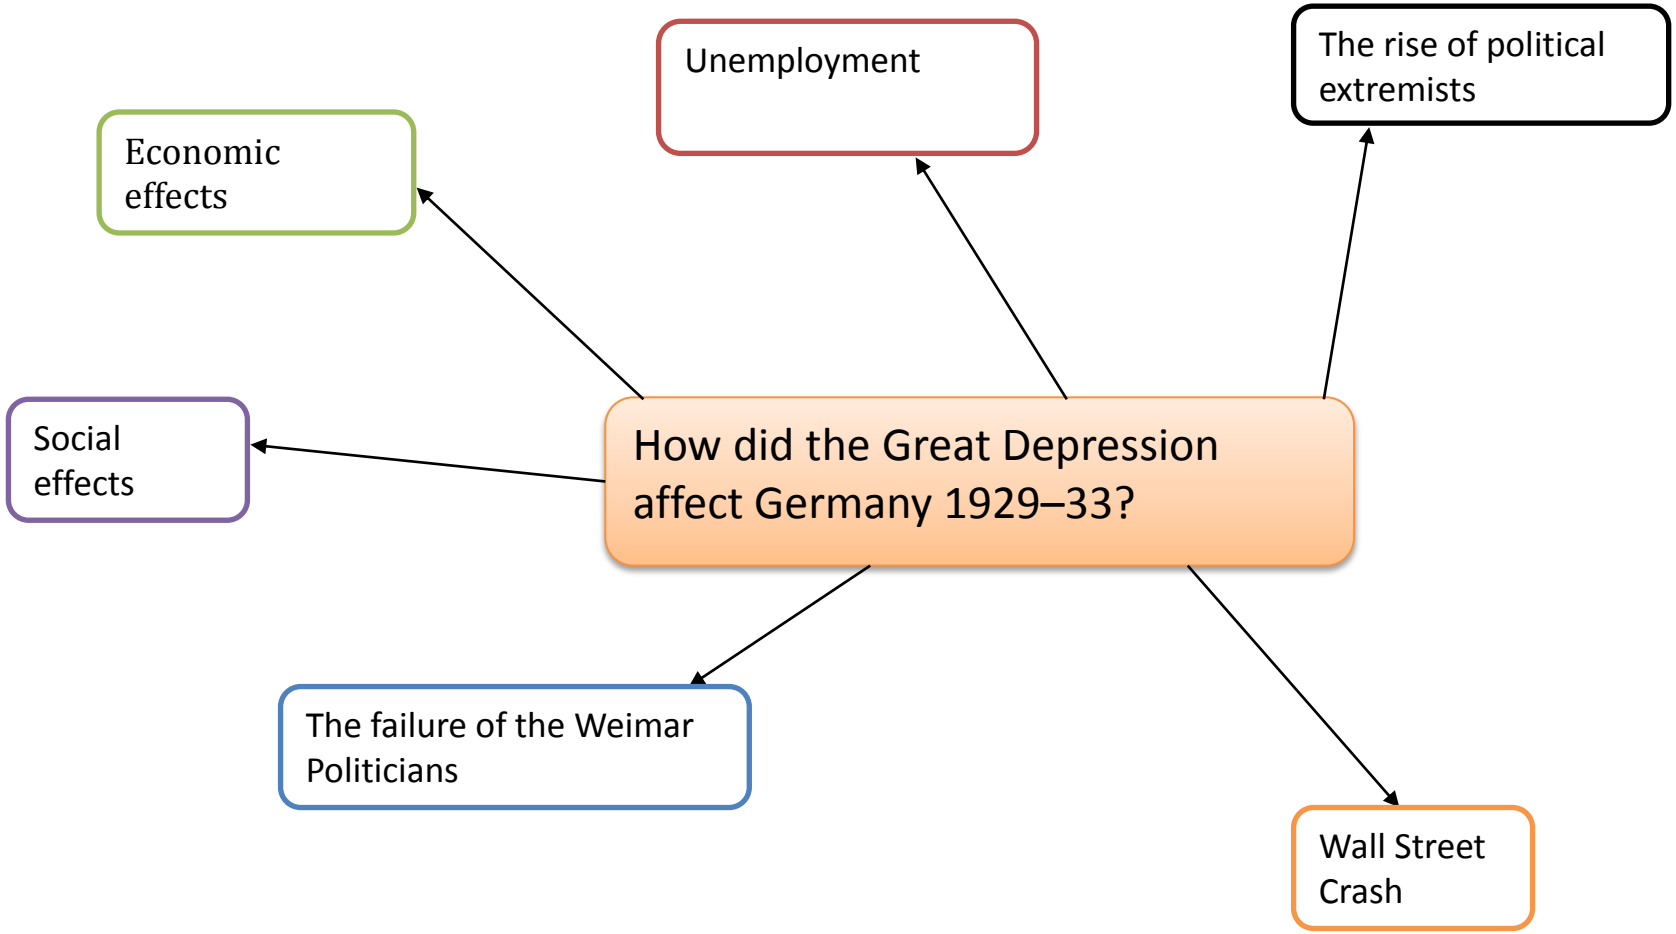
How did the Nazi Party develop 1919–23?
The founding of the Nazi Party
Reorganisation
25 Point plan
The role of the SA
Hitler becomes leader
The aims of the Nazi Party
Hitler's career before 1919
First World War



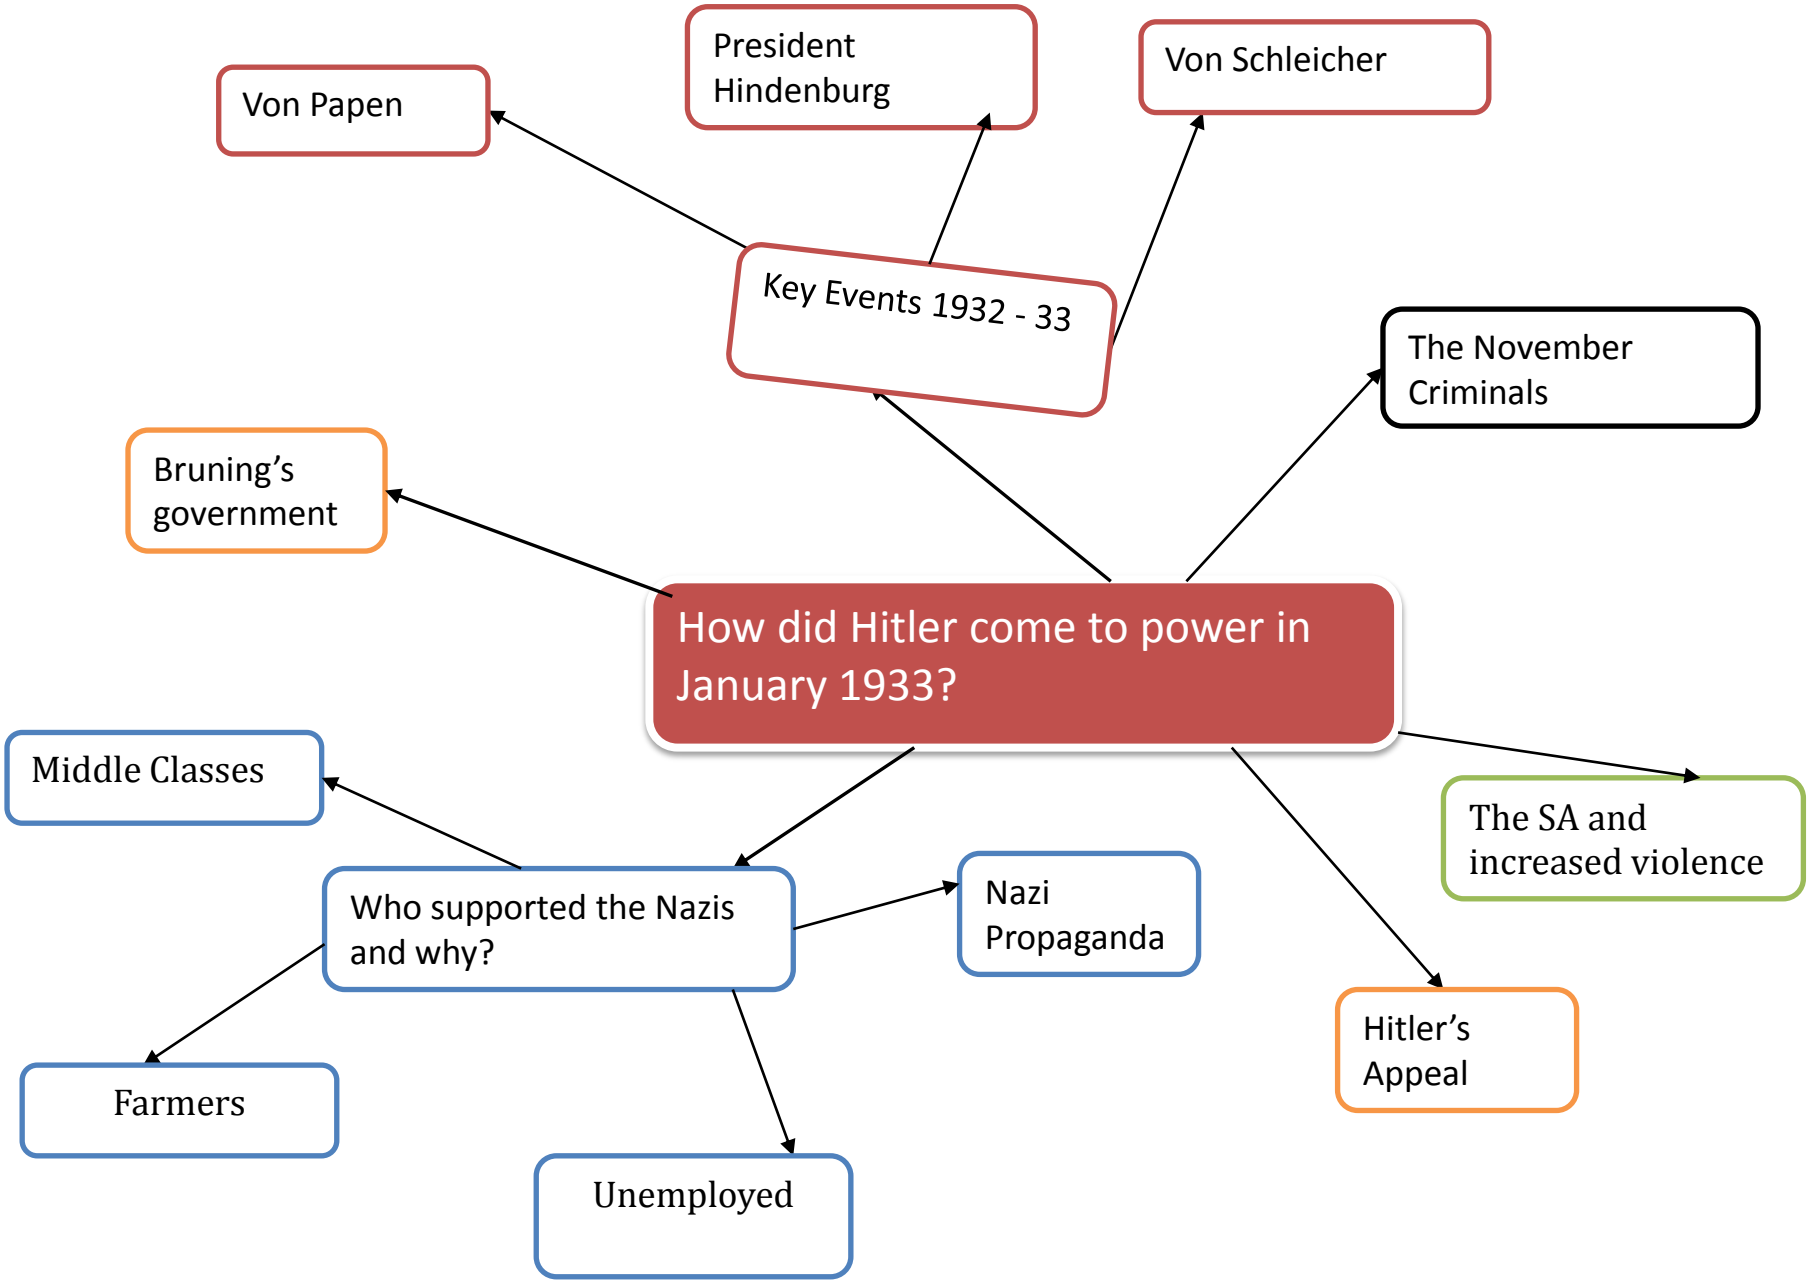
How successful was Gustav Stresemann in dealing with Germany's problems 1924 – 29?
Kellogg Briand Pact
The League of Nations
Locarno Pact
Young Plan
Dawes Plan
Dealing with hyperinflation
Underlying problems
Stresemann's role



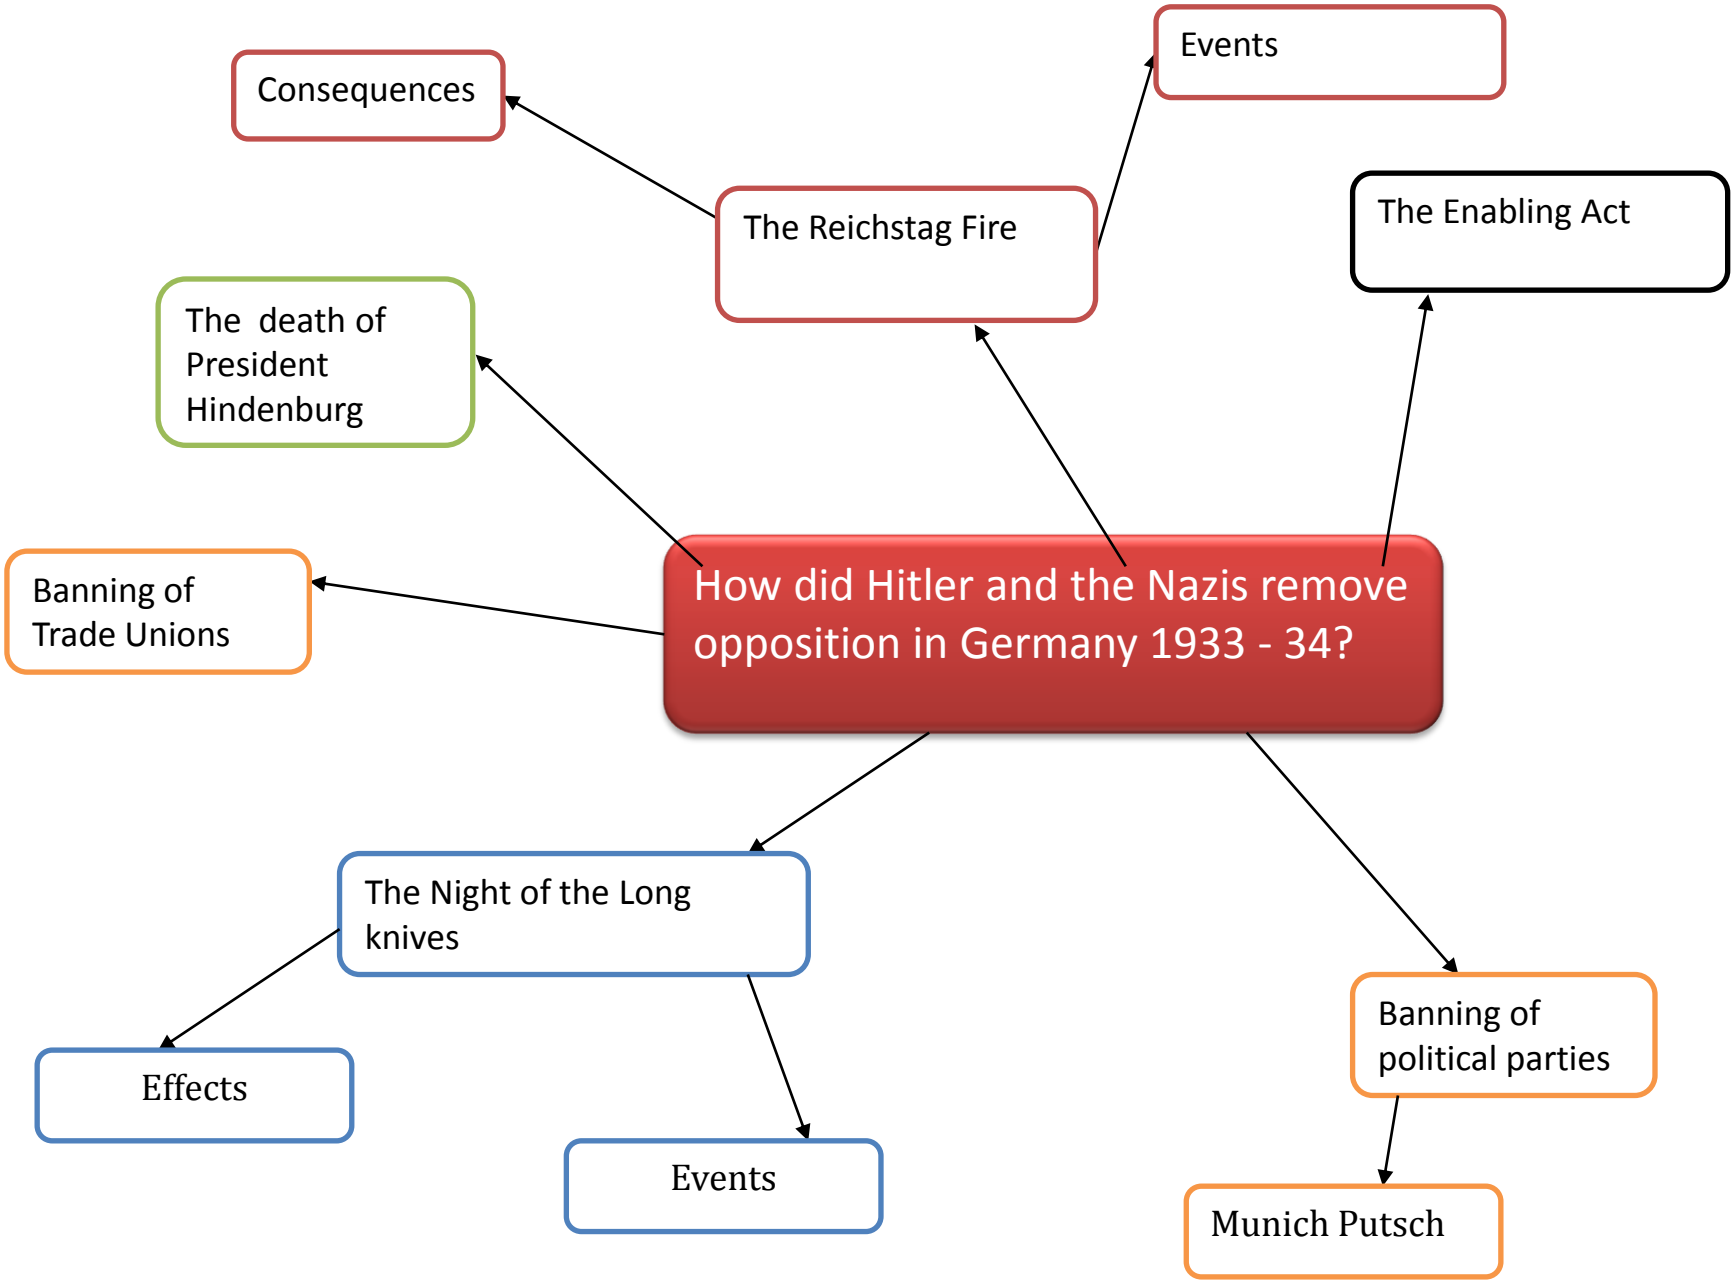
Why did the Munich Putsch fail and what happened to the Nazis in the lean years 1923–29?
Hitler reorganises the Nazi Party
Finances
The SS
Changing organisation
Goebbels and propaganda
Mein Kampf
Why did Nazi support decline after 1923?
The Munich Putsch
Events
Causes
Hitler on trial



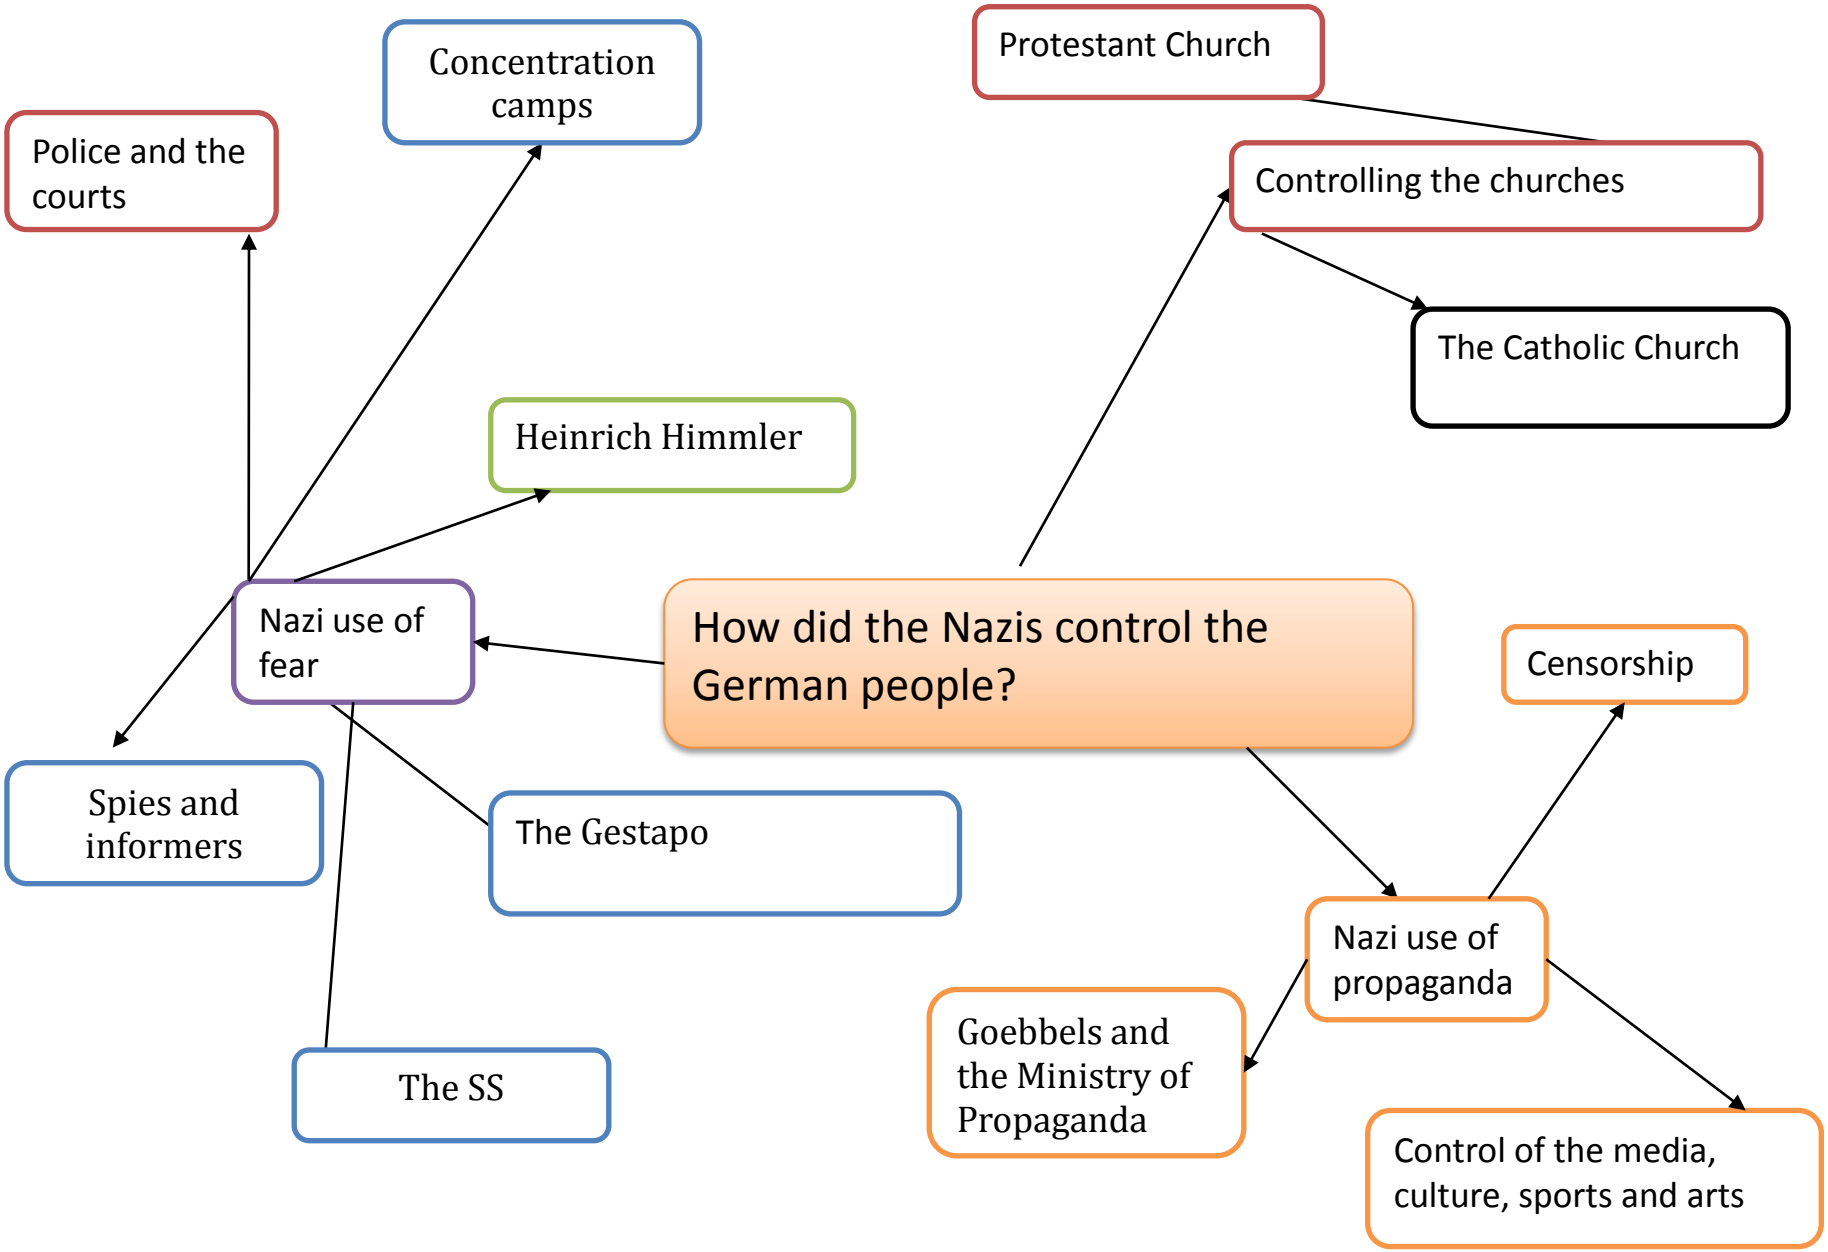
How did the Great Depression affect Germany 1929–33?
Economic effects
Unemployment
The rise of political extremists
Social effects
The failure of the Weimar Politicians
Wall Street Crash



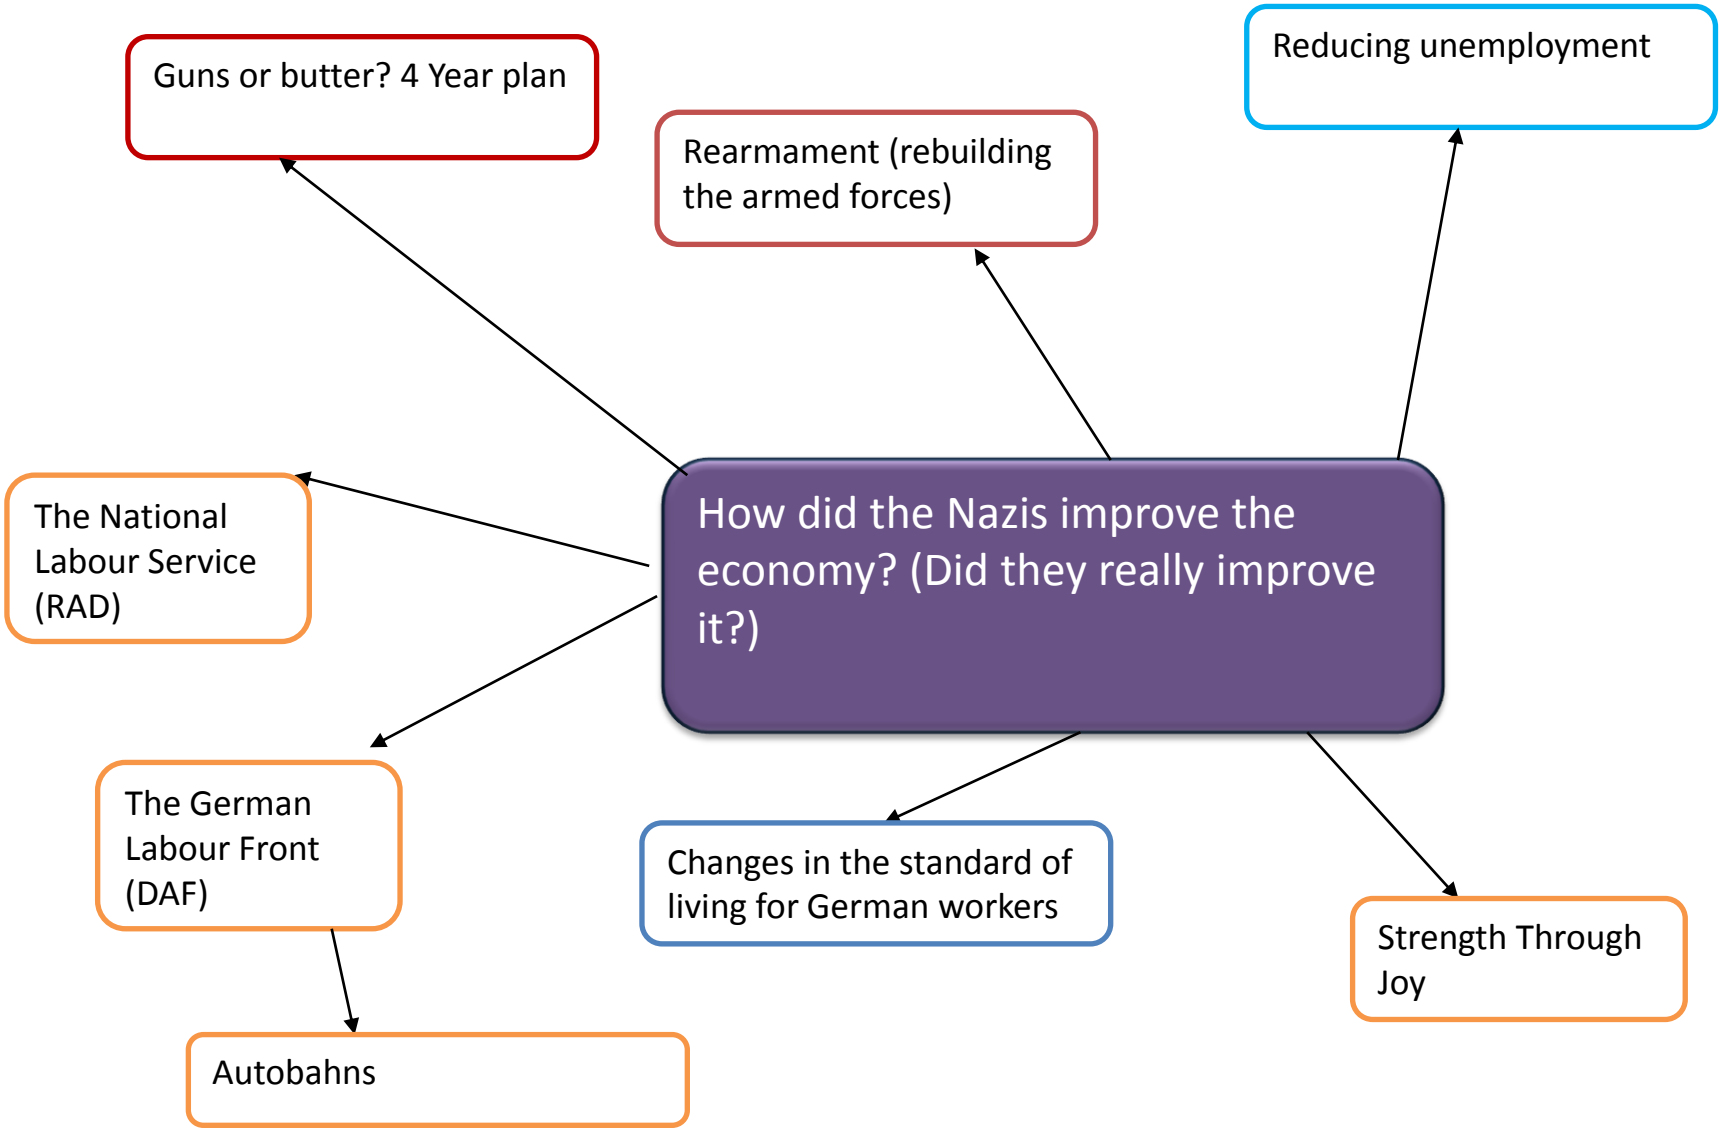
How did Hitler come to power in January 1933?
Key Events 1932 - 33
Von Papen
President Hindenburg
Von Schleicher
The November Criminals
Bruning's government
Who supported the Nazis and why?
Middle Classes
Farmers
Unemployed
Nazi Propaganda
Hitler's Appeal
The SA and increased violence



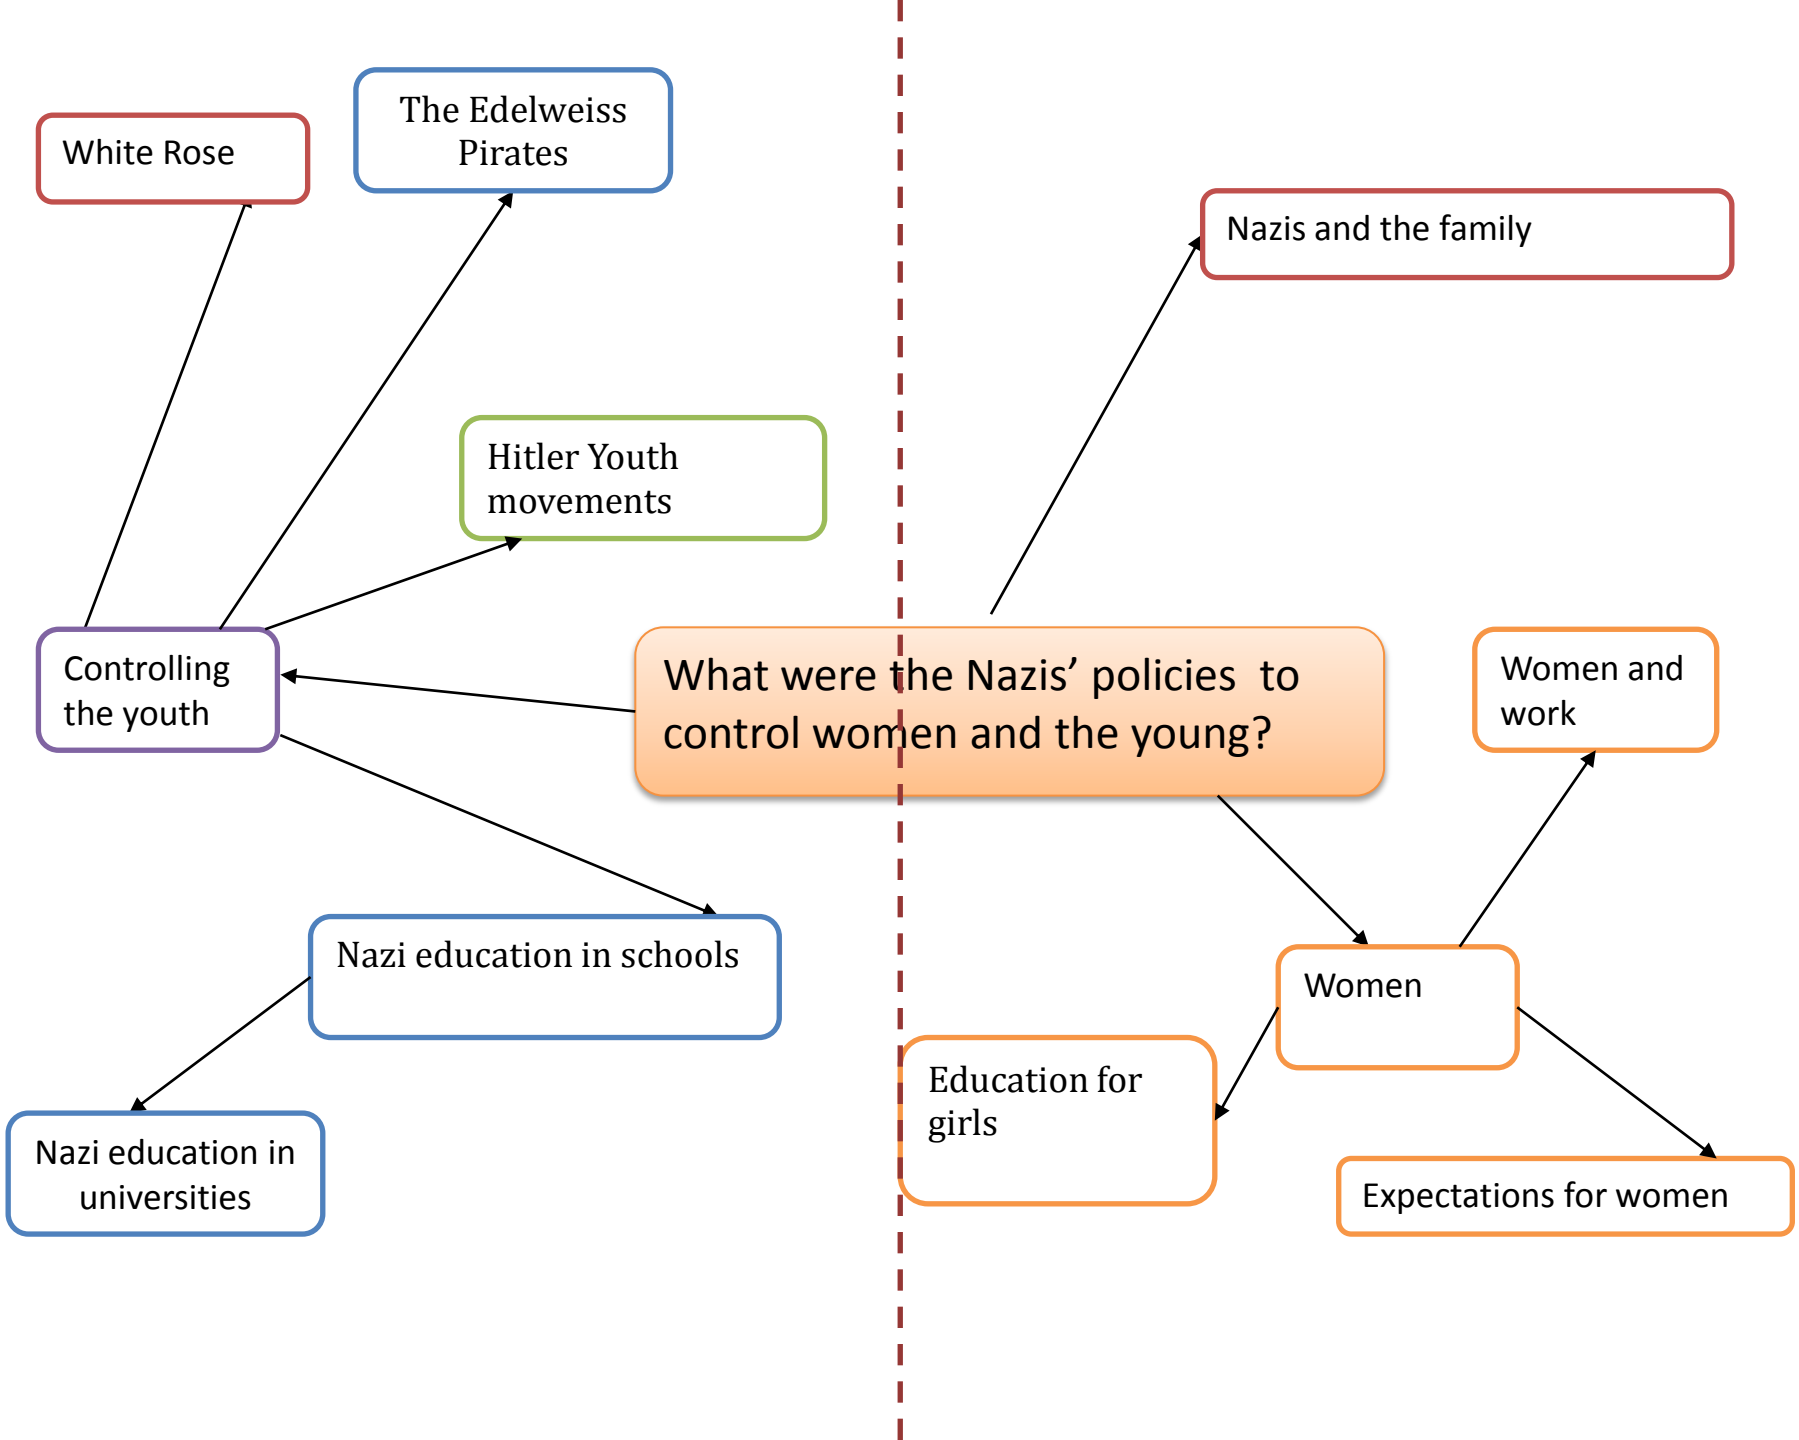
How did Hitler and the Nazis remove opposition in Germany 1933 - 34?
The Reichstag Fire
Consequences
Events
The Enabling Act
The death of President Hindenburg
Banning of Trade Unions
The Night of the Long knives
Effects
Events
Banning of political parties
Munich Putsch



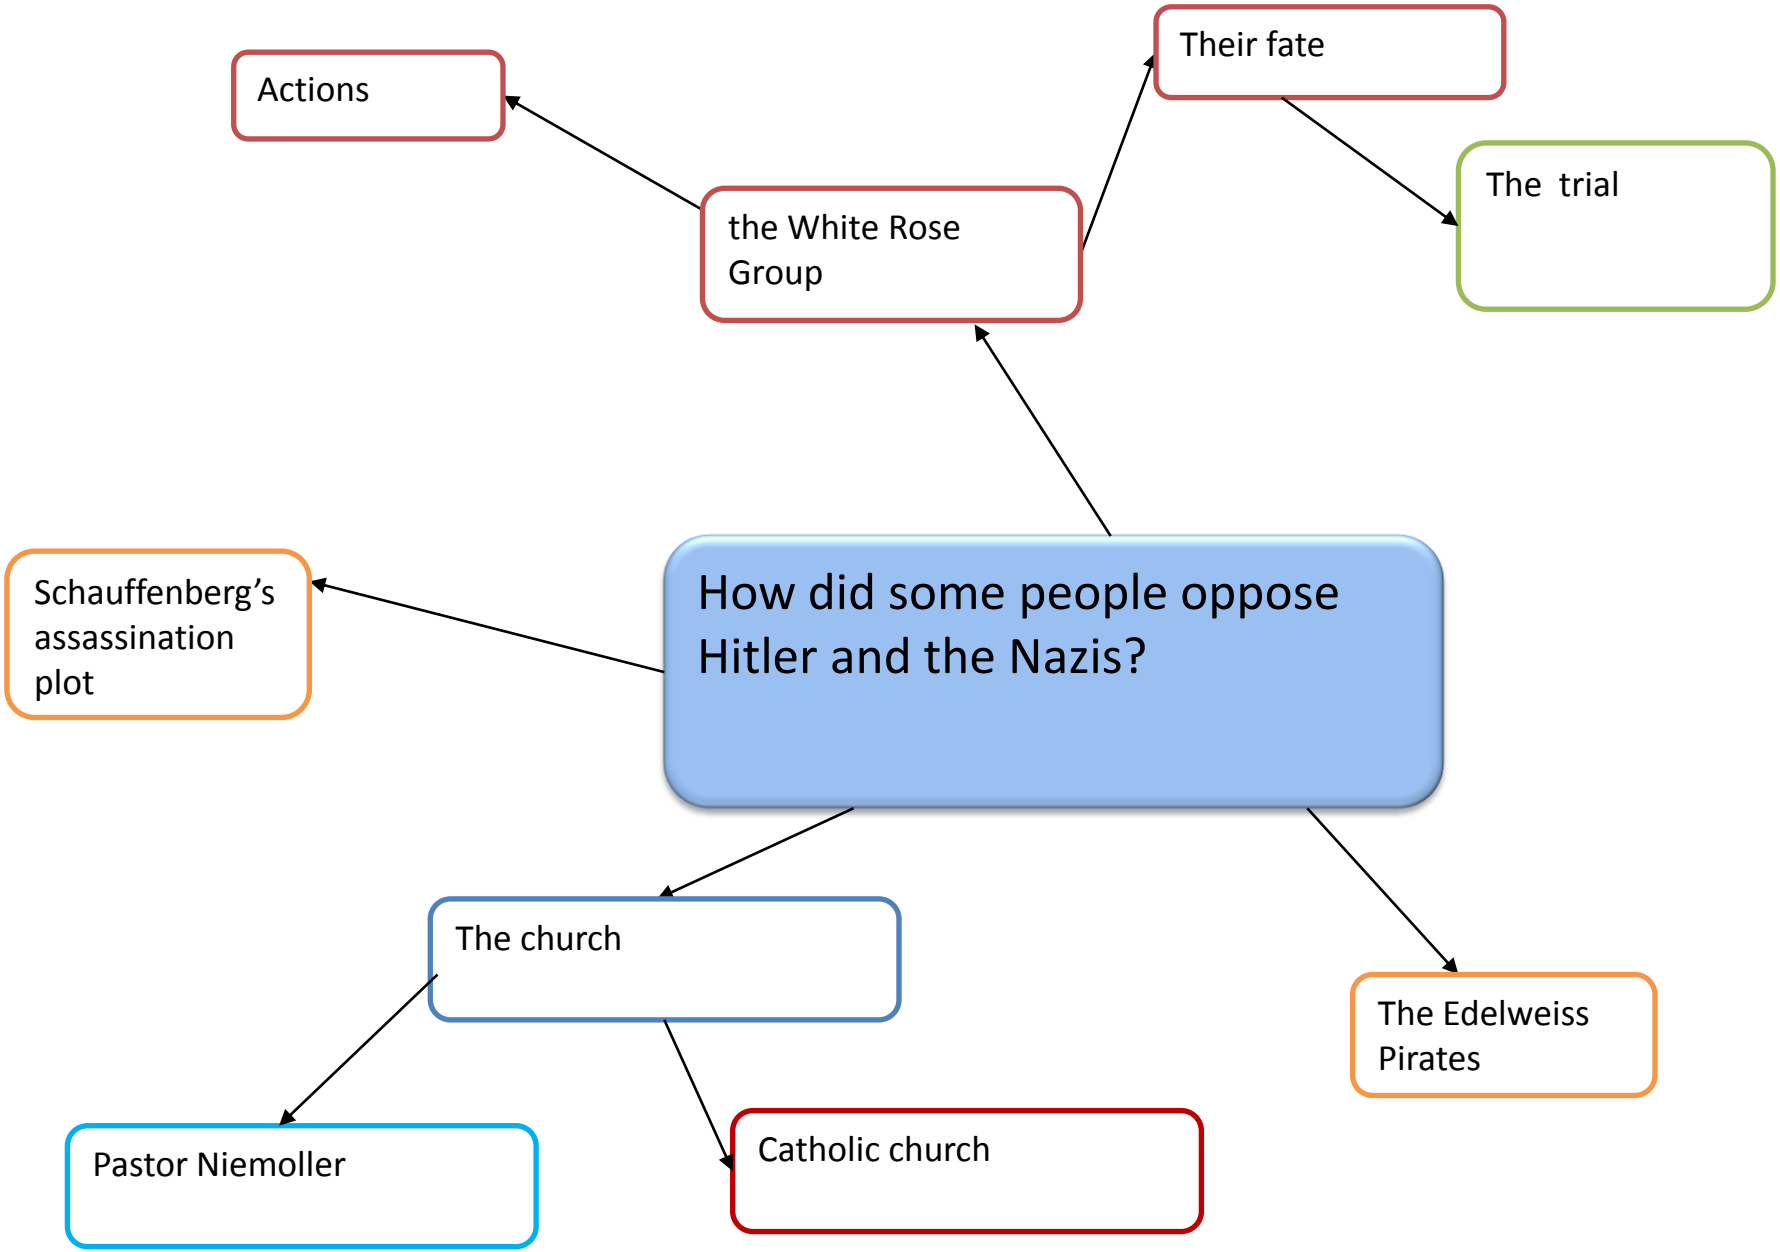
How did the Nazis control the German people?
Nazi use of fear
Police and the courts
Concentration camps
Heinrich Himmler
Spies and informers
The Gestapo
The SS
Controlling the churches
Protestant Church
The Catholic Church
Nazi use of propaganda
Censorship
Goebbels and the Ministry of Propaganda
Control of the media, culture, sports and arts



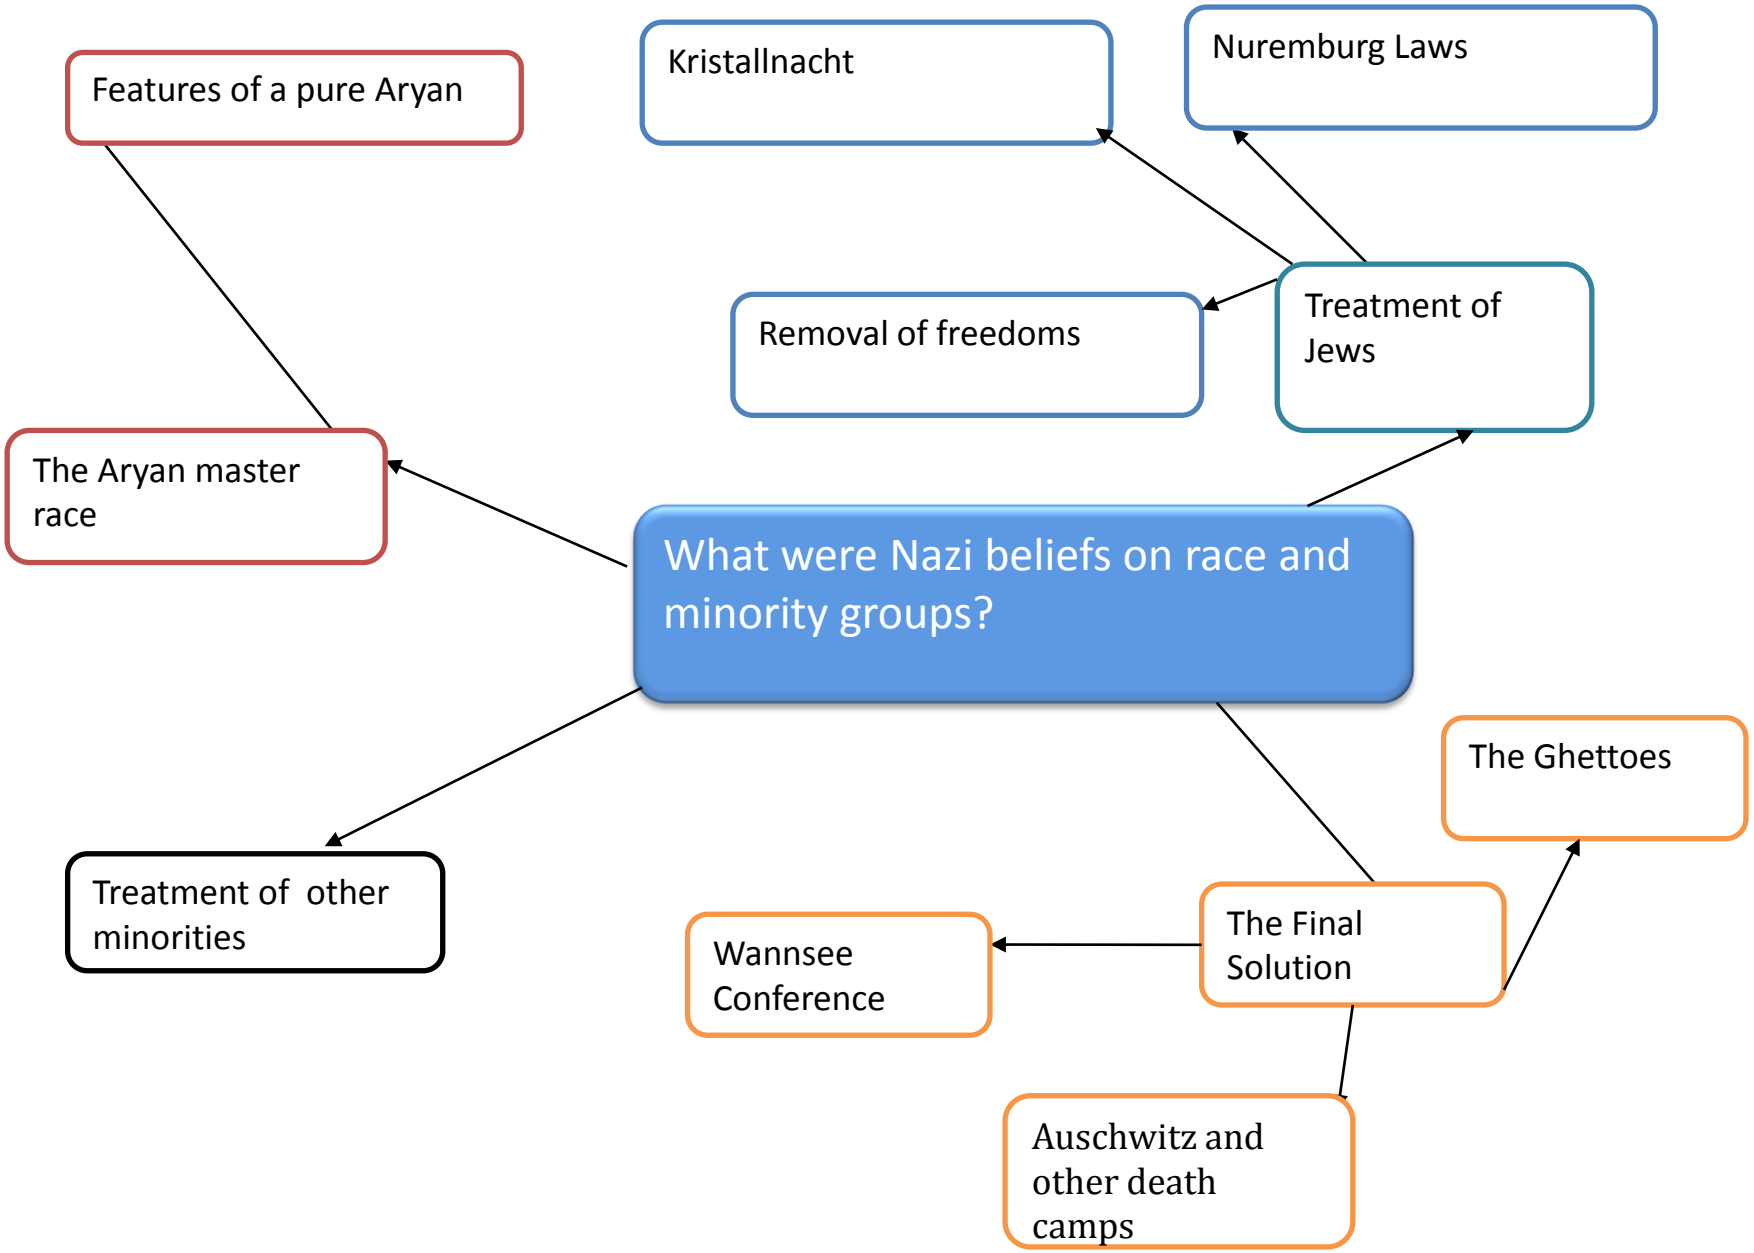
How did the Nazis improve the economy? (Did they really improve it?)
Guns or butter? 4 Year plan
Rearmament (rebuilding the armed forces)
Reducing unemployment
The National Labour Service (RAD)
The German Labour Front (DAF)
Autobahns
Changes in the standard of living for German workers
Strength Through Joy



What were the Nazis' policies to control women and the young?
Controlling the youth
White Rose
The Edelweiss Pirates
Hitler Youth movements
Nazi education in schools
Nazi education in universities
Nazis and the family
Women
Women and work
Education for girls
Expectations for women



How did some people oppose Hitler and the Nazis?
the White Rose Group
Actions
Their fate
The trial
Schauffenberg's assassination plot
The church
Pastor Niemoller
Catholic church
The Edelweiss Pirates



What were Nazi beliefs on race and minority groups?
Features of a pure Aryan
The Aryan master race
Kristallnacht
Nuremburg Laws
Removal of freedoms
Treatment of Jews
Treatment of other minorities
The Ghettoes
The Final Solution
Wannsee Conference
Auschwitz and other death camps